

If you accepted Visa or MasterCard credit cards as payment for goods or services after March 23, 2001, your rights could be affected by a proposed national class action settlement with Desjardins.

The Credit Card Actions

Class action lawsuits were commenced in British Columbia (the "BC Action"), Alberta, Saskatchewan, Quebec and Ontario (collectively, the "Credit Card Actions") against Visa Canada Corporation ("Visa"), MasterCard International Incorporated ("MasterCard") and certain banks which issue credit cards ("Issuing Banks") alleging each of Visa and MasterCard conspired with their issuing banks and Acquirers in setting the amount of interchange fees and imposing rules restricting merchants' ability to surcharge or refuse higher cost Visa and MasterCard credit cards ("Acquirer" is an organization or person that entered into a contract with a merchant for the provision of Visa Credit Card or MasterCard Credit Card services and charging Merchant Discount Fees, which account for and/or include Interchange fees in Canada). The BC Action was certified as a class proceeding as against all defendants except for the Fédération des caisses Desjardins du Québec ("Desjardins").

The Settlement

Although Desjardins denies liability, it has reached a national settlement with the plaintiffs (the "Desjardins Settlement"), subject to approval of the courts in British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Quebec and Ontario (the "Courts"). Desjardins will pay CAD $9,900,000 (the "Settlement Amount") for the benefit of the Settlement Class Members (see below) and provide cooperation that will assist with prosecuting the ongoing actions against the non-settling defendants in exchange for a full release of claims against it and its related entities.

If the Settlement is approved, the Class Lawyers will ask the Courts to approve the deduction of certain amounts (collectively, the "Court Approved Expenses") from the Settlement Amount, including costs incurred to distribute this notice and process opt-out requests, comments and objections (see below), a counsel fee of up to 25% of the recovered amounts, and disbursements.

As the Credit Card Actions will continue as against the other defendants, it is proposed that the amounts remaining from the Settlement Amount after deduction of all Court Approved Expenses be held in trust for Settlement Class Members pending receipt of further settlements or awards that may justify a distribution effort, or conclusion of the Credit Card Actions. At such time, a distribution protocol will be created and submitted to the Courts for approval, and further notice will be provided to Settlement Class Members. If you would like to receive direct notice of any distribution efforts, please register at www.CreditCardSettlements.ca, or contact one of the Class Lawyers listed below.

Certification/Authorization as Class Proceedings for Settlement Purposes

Separate and apart from the certification of the BC Action against all defendants (except for Desjardins), in order to implement the Settlement, the Courts have certified/authorized all of the Credit Card Actions as class proceedings against Desjardins for settlement purposes only.
